Hospitality

Leader:

Please mute  for the service unless invited to offer your voice as part of the service ministry

Have the video camera  on or off and turn the volume and brightness up or down on your device if things are too loud   or too bright

Our Cantor acts as our voice,  offering the responses, in Bold Text, which we say together

Feel welcome to use the chat  and reaction emojis

 Please take care of yourself in this space.  Come and go as you need

 It is great to take rest in this space, so falling asleep is also OK

 Remember, pastoral care is available to all in the community, if you'd like to speak to someone about anything spiritual.  Visit the help page at the website to reach out

Our Being Together ethos and safeguarding practices can also be accessed on the website

 Come as you are - we are all here together!

Leader: Our Holy Hermit today is Santa Teresa de Los Andes Born in Santiago, Chile, in 1900 to an upper-class family, Juana Enriqueta Josefina balanced a pious nature with youthful faults like stubbornness and vanity. She enjoyed music and sport, but reading the autobiography of Thérèse of Lisieux redirected her life toward God. Working to overcome self-centredness before her First Communion, she committed herself to service. In 1919, she entered the Discalced Carmelite novitiate in Los Andes, taking the name "Teresa of Jesus." There, she began a letter-writing apostolate to share her spiritual insights.

Her life was tragically cut short when she contracted a fatal illness, likely typhus or the Spanish flu. As her condition deteriorated rapidly on Good Friday in 1920, the young novice was permitted to profess her religious vows early while facing imminent death (in articulo mortis). Sister Teresa peacefully passed away on April 12, 1920, leaving behind a lasting legacy of joyful devotion.

Invitation

Leader: As we come into worship let's take a few deep breaths,
Let go of anything that isn't serving us,
And become aware of God's presence here with us.

The Greeting

Leader: The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ,
and the love of God,
and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit,
be with you all.

All: And also with you.

TRINITY SUNDAY
REMINDING US THAT ALL PERSONS OF GOD
ARE INVOLVED IN OUR WORSHIP AND IN OUR FAITH

Gathering Prayer

Leader:

Jesus calls us to meet with him today,
to recognise his resurrection life
and to hear again our commission:

To go and make disciples of all nations.

Let us come and worship him,

Our Lord and our King.

REMEMBERING THAT ALL PERSONS OF GOD
ARE INVOLVED IN OUR WORSHIP AND IN OUR FAITH

Gathering Prayer

All: Risen Jesus, you are alive and you are here.
Speak to us again, and equip us to do your will
and speak your Word
that we might continue the mission
you gave your first disciples.

Amen.

Sentence

Leader: I invite our Cantor to proclaim the sentence for today.

Cantor: Proclaim the Name: 'The Lord, the Lord, a God who is merciful and gracious, slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love and faithfulness.'

Prayer of Approach

Leader: We pray the prayer of approach together

All: Jesus told his disciples to go up the mountain.

A beautiful but lonely place.

Lord God, our lives can be very lonely.

Even in the middle of a crowd, we can feel alone.

Thank you, Lord, that you are always with us, wherever we are and however we feel.

We pause to acknowledge your presence with us today.

We bless you for all you will reveal to us. Amen.

The Introduction to Confession

God is steadfast in love and infinite in mercy, welcoming sinners and inviting them to the Lord's table.

Silence may be kept.

Let us confess our sins in penitence and faith, with a sincere and a true heart.

TRINITY SUNDAY
REMINDING US THAT ALL PERSONS OF GOD
ARE INVOLVED IN OUR WORSHIP AND IN OUR FAITH

All: Merciful God, our maker and our judge,
we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed,
and in what we have failed to do:

we have not loved you with our whole heart;

we have not loved our neighbours as ourselves;

we repent, and are sorry for all our sins.

Father, forgive us. Strengthen us to love and obey you in newness of life; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen.

Words of Assurance offered by the Deacon or LA

These words of assurance from the First Letter of John declare that:

If anyone sins, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous. He is the perfect offering for our sin, and not for ours only, but for the sins of the whole world.

(1 John 2: 1-2)

In this is love, not that we loved God, but that he loved us and sent his Son to be the perfect offering for our sins.

(1 John 4:10)

Collect

Leader: Almighty and everlasting God, you have given to us your servants grace
by the confession of a true faith to acknowledge the glory of the eternal Trinity,
and in the power of the divine majesty
to worship the Unity:
keep us steadfast in this faith,
and evermore defend us from all adversities,
for you live and reign, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Leader: I invite the 1st reader to unmute and offer the 1st lesson when ready.

Reader 1: The 1st Reading is from Exodus 34.1-8

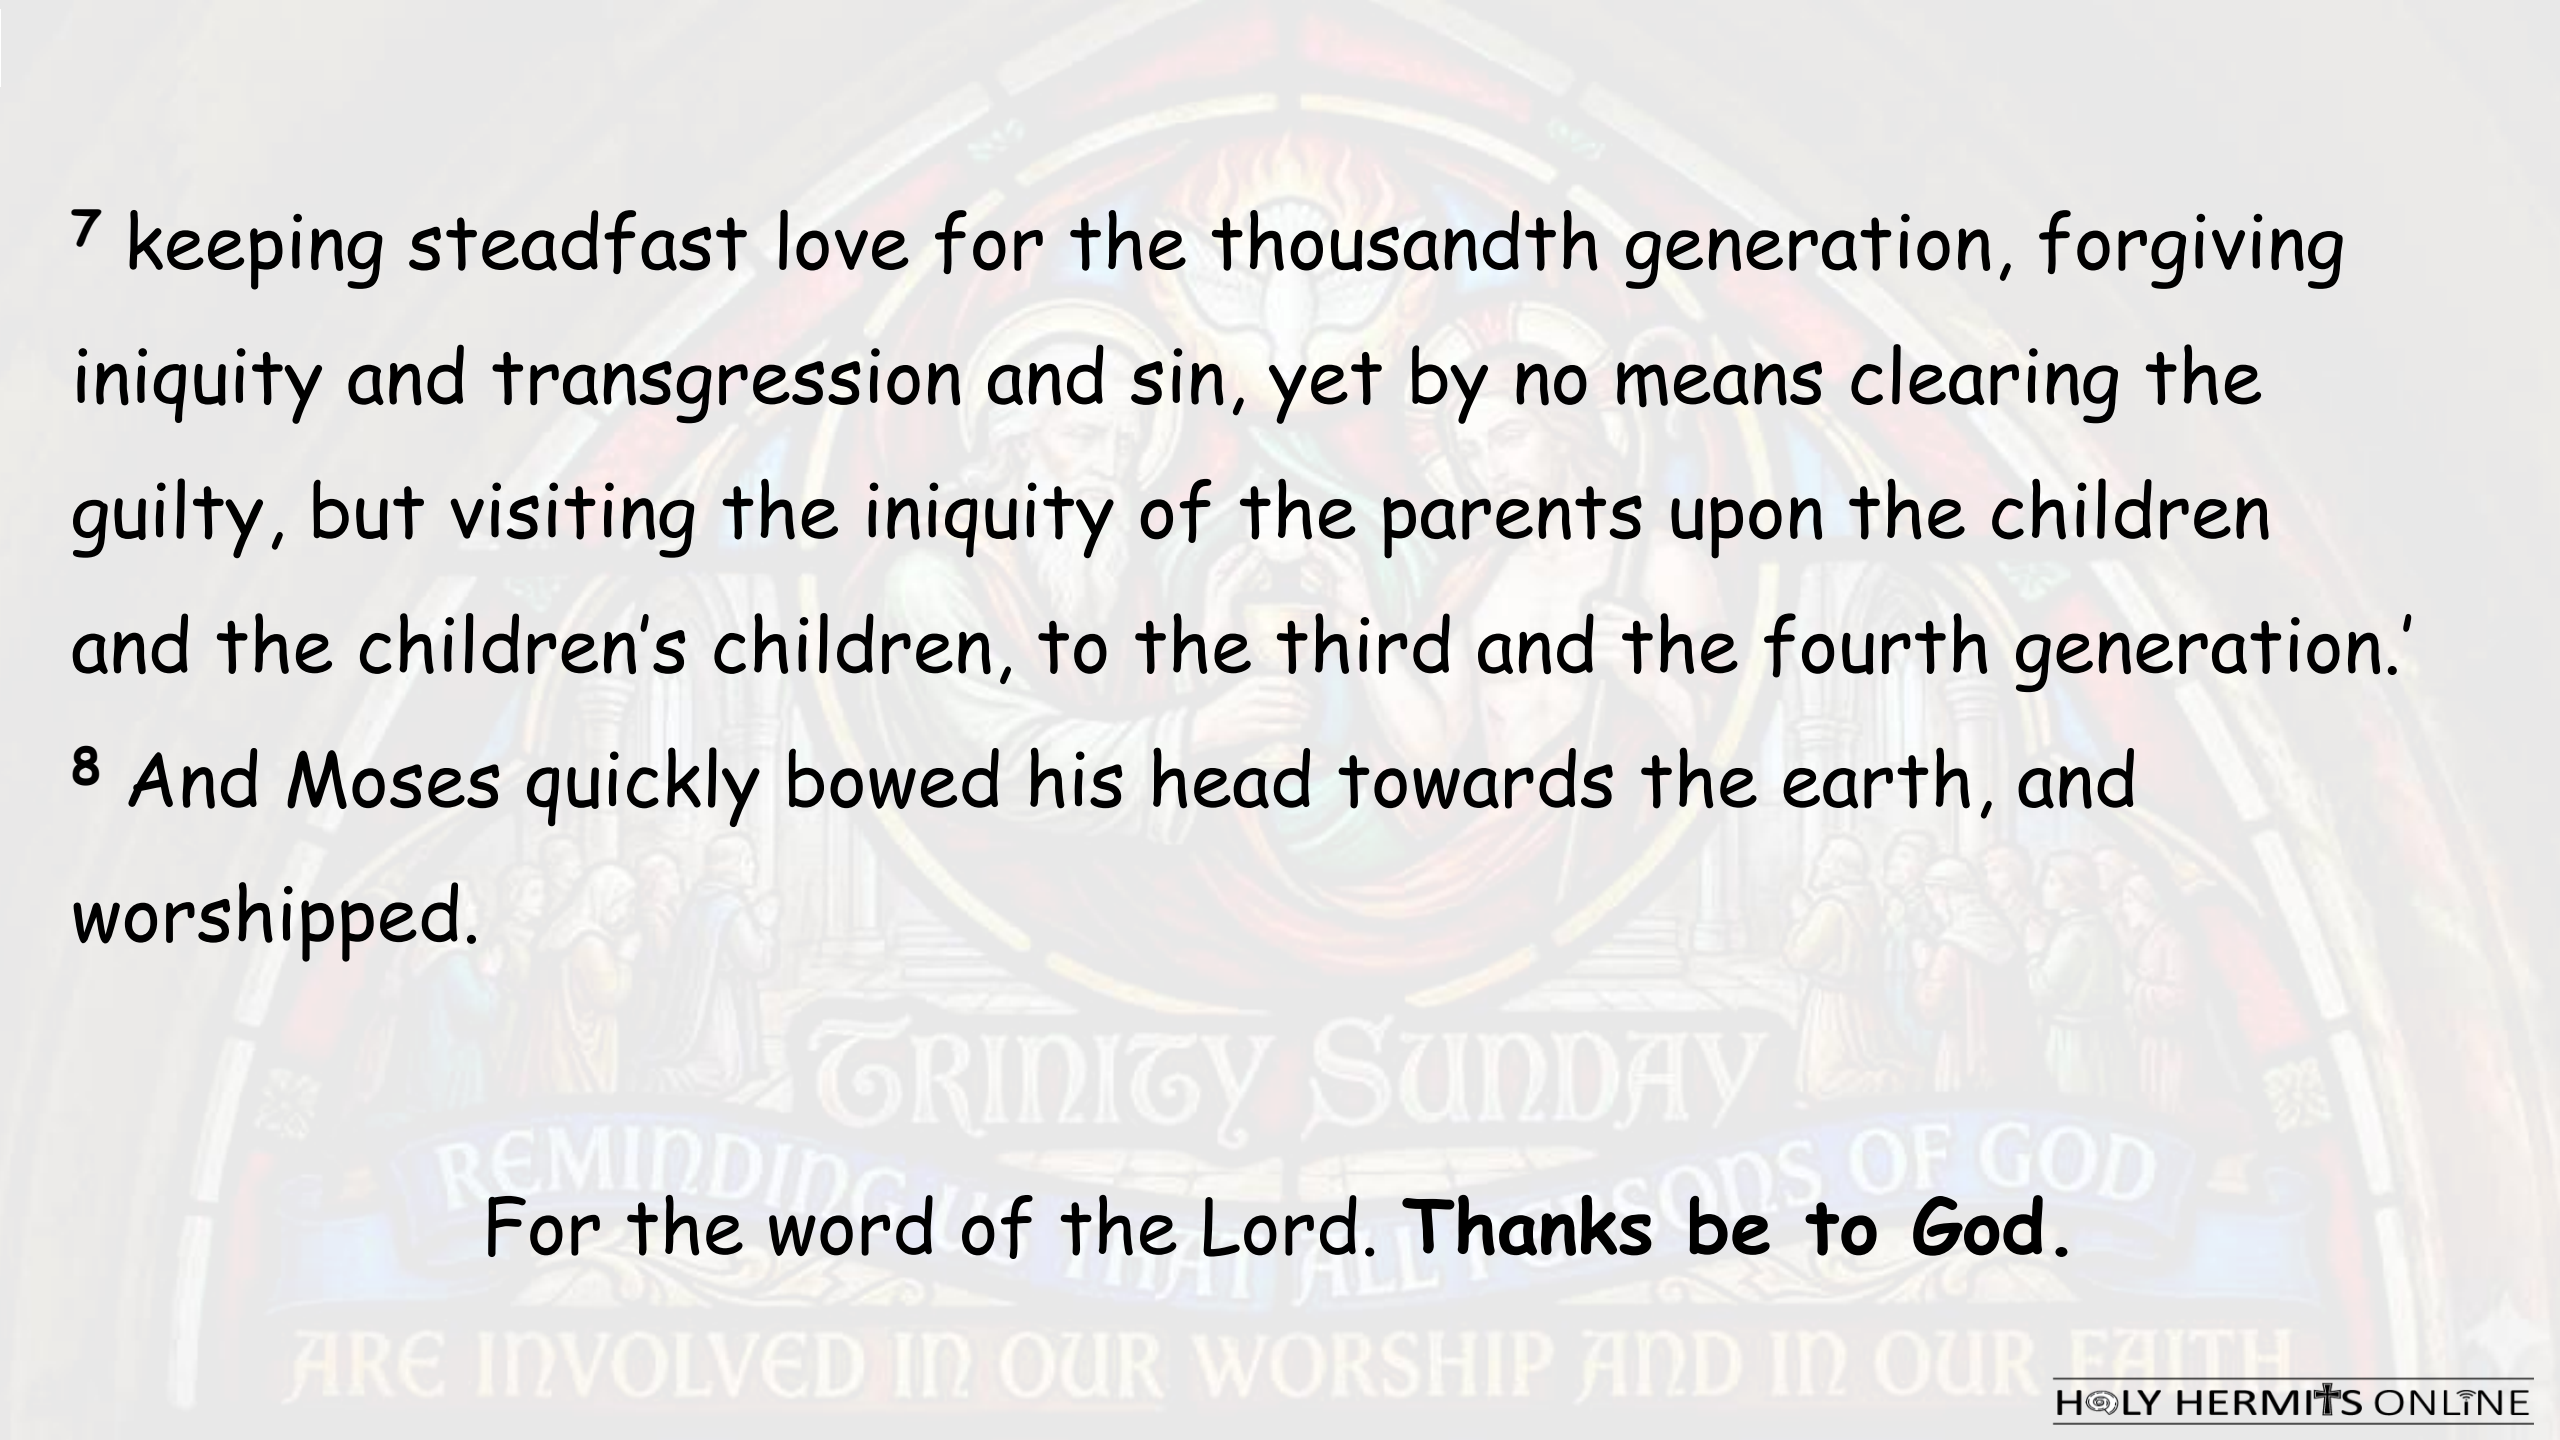

¹ The LORD said to Moses, 'Cut two tablets of stone like the former ones, and I will write on the tablets the words that were on the former tablets, which you broke. ² Be ready in the morning, and come up in the morning to Mount Sinai and present yourself there to me, on the top of the mountain. ³ No one shall come up with you, and do not let anyone be seen throughout all the mountain; and do not let flocks or herds graze in front of that mountain.' ⁴ So Moses cut two tablets of stone like the former ones; and he rose early in the morning and went up on Mount Sinai, as the LORD had commanded him, and took in his hand the two tablets of stone. ⁵ The LORD descended in the cloud and stood with him there, and proclaimed the name, 'The LORD.'

⁶ The LORD passed before him, and proclaimed, 'The LORD, the LORD, a God merciful and gracious, slow to anger, and abounding in steadfast love and faithfulness,

The background features a large, colorful stained glass window. The central part shows the Holy Trinity: God the Father with a dove, Jesus Christ, and the Holy Spirit. Below this, a group of people, likely the Israelites, are depicted in a scene of prayer or worship. The text is overlaid on this background.

⁷ keeping steadfast love for the thousandth generation, forgiving iniquity and transgression and sin, yet by no means clearing the guilty, but visiting the iniquity of the parents upon the children and the children's children, to the third and the fourth generation.'

⁸ And Moses quickly bowed his head towards the earth, and worshipped.

For the word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Leader: I invite the 2nd reader to unmute and offer the 2nd lesson when ready.

Reader 2: The 2nd Reading is from 2 Corinthians 13.11-14

¹¹ Finally, brothers and sisters, farewell. Put things in order, listen to my appeal, agree with one another, live in peace; and the God of love and peace will be with you. ¹² Greet one another with a holy kiss. All the saints greet you. ¹³ The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with all of you.

For the word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

We pause before the Gospel

Deacon: The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to St Matthew Chapter 28 beginning at the 16th verse

All: Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ.

¹⁶ Now the eleven disciples went to Galilee, to the mountain to which Jesus had directed them. ¹⁷ When they saw him, they worshipped him; but some doubted. ¹⁸ And Jesus came and said to them, 'All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. ¹⁹ Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptising them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, ²⁰ and teaching them to obey everything that I have commanded you. And remember, I am with you always, to the end of the age.'

This is the Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

A still life scene featuring an open book, a vase of flowers, and lit candles. The scene is set on a wooden surface, possibly a table, with a window in the background. The lighting is warm and soft, creating a peaceful atmosphere. The open book is the central focus, with its pages filled with text. To the left, a clear glass vase holds a bouquet of pink and purple flowers. To the right, a tall, lit candle sits on a glass holder, and another lit candle is visible in the foreground. The overall composition is balanced and evokes a sense of quiet reflection and devotion.

You gave all your disciples authority to spread your word.

Thank you that we are your disciples also,
and you do the same for us.

May we praise you with our words and actions,
as we seek first your kingdom in our lives.

Thank you, Lord.

Amen.

Leader: Let us pray together the prayer which Jesus gave us saying:

All: Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as in heaven.

Give us today our daily bread.

Forgive us our sins

as we forgive those who sin against us.

Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil.

For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours
now and for ever.

Amen.

Hermit Wisdom

"Remember that the Heart of Jesus is your spiritual cradle. There is your nest. There Jesus sings lullabies of peace and love to you."

"I feel full of God. There is no separation between us. Wherever I go, He is with me, within me. I live with Him. And despite being on the walks, we both talk without anyone surprising us or interrupting us. The will of God is a spiritual food that fortifies the soul that surrenders to Him gladly."

ARE INVOLVED IN OUR WORSHIP AND IN OUR FAITH

Leader: As we enter a few minutes of silence together, you are invited to pray the prayer of adoration on the next slide and/or spend this time in contemplation.

The Spiritual Communion prayer follows on the slide after that.

Let us be still.

Leader and Cantor Mute.

Lord God, some of the disciples doubted when they saw you.

But you didn't leave them in their darkness, you came to them.

Come to us now, Lord, as we worship you.

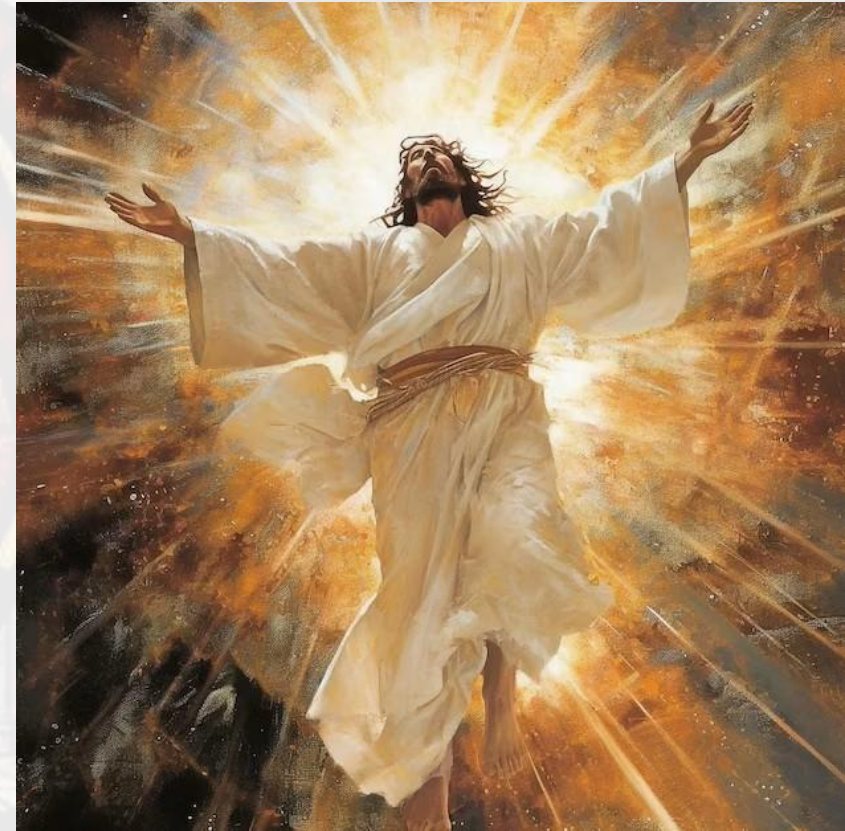

Lord, where you are there is love.

May we never doubt your love for us.

May we be transfixed as we look upon your face.

Come to us here, Lord, as we worship you.

Amen.

Oh, my Lord Jesus I turn to you present at the Altar and in the Tabernacle. I believe that you are present in the Holy Sacrament of your most Sacred Body and Blood. I love you above all things and I desire to receive you into my Soul. I cannot at this moment receive you Sacramentally in Holy Communion. Come spiritually into my heart. Purify it, Sanctify it. Render my heart like your own heart. I embrace you as if you were already there and unite myself wholly with you. Never permit me to be separated from you. Lord, I am not worthy to receive you, but only say the word and I shall be healed. Amen
